FOREWORD

Elon is more than a group of educational structures erected for the purpose of instilling intellectual stimulation. It is a feeling of truth. Christianity, and sincerity — a spirit of friendliness and concern. Elon can never exist in completion except in the minds and hearts of its students. Who can capture the good time of a fraternity party, the thrill of a close ballgame, or the sorrow of a last farewell?

In an attempt to portray to you Elon College as it really exists, the Phi Psi Cli staff presents "Elon in Abstract." Stripped of the superficial which smothers her intrinsic beauty, Elon may be seen here as in the eyes of one who is now and forever a part of her.

CONTENTS

STUDENT BODY 30

*All the little selves. Intermingle.
Live with life not alone,
but in harmony.
The one common self—*

the Student Body.

ACTIVITIES 66

To learn from books is merely a part of our preparation; the fulfillment of knowledge comes with living together and working together in the sphere of campus activity.

SPORTS 82

The spirit of an athlete engraved with Sportsmanship. A field, a team, a crowd. The thrill of victory, the tears of loss. The surge of the muscle and the heart bound together in the drama of the sport.

GREEKS 98

And so we proudly wear the cloak of binding friendship, woven with the threads of the fraternal spirit on the loom of brotherhood.

FEATURES 118

They aim for the stars and then shine in the radiant beams of recognition. We choose them as guiding lights.

...and

*Come. Come away with me and learn.
Bring your mind, your laughter, your tears.
Bring dreams, and we will go to lose youth.*

... dreams are like soft blue bubbles floating mutely in a still gossamer woven by starlight.

round rainbows glint and circle in curved corners

then disappear, only to reappear again in a tear.

the bubble grows, and grows pale with a gasp of a sigh.

thin sides bulge with an elbow nudge and strain with a final goodbye...

*Autumn falls quietly.
crinkled leaves
chopped into mash
carpet the campus.*

*Under the trees
in the grass
blind ants laugh.*

Learn.

Cool, green
wind in the leaves.
sewer smoke, smoldering softly, swiftly swirling
—curling coiling
'round colonnades.

Umbrellas march
like mushrooms in rain
flitting like speckles beneath oak trees insane.

Walking in the rain...
so far away
from now or never...
but then,
with him,
forever.

Dance to the beat
of hearts and lights
and aromatic breath.
Dance 'till feet ache
and tired legs shake with spasms of misery and delight.

Bring your mind

Mumble, grumble, stutter, splutter crooked teeth bend the words soiling thoughts like sour curds.
Minutes waste into days long,
waiting for chapel bells to gong.
Spaghetti sauce glopped on plates,
co-eds pout and want more lates.
Green blackboards, covered with math.
Why, of course an alligator needs a bath!

Nine o'clock on a Sunday night—

Quiet prevails, stillness is tight

All are out, God's asleep.

... black smears across a slick, slick floor tracks left by the horsemen four.

• • •

Autumn mutates, leaves us, evolving into winter.

*School work vibrates
like the pang
of a splinter.*

*Empty rooms with lights lit . . .
open books, votted brain,
surface stagnant, severe eye strain.
Watching words wander—
Where?*

*A lack of ambition
a serious perdition too deaf to Hear too blind to See too deep to Fear too frightened to Be . . .*

...your laughter,

your tears...

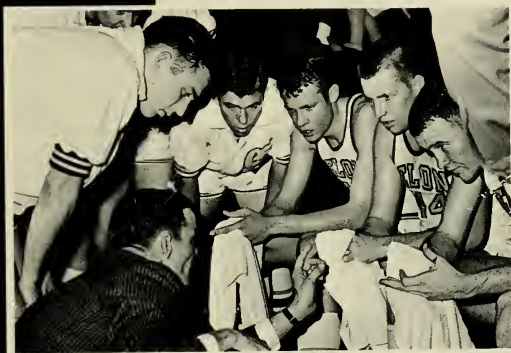

Go! Go! Go! Go!

go! go! go!

Football, basketball

go, team, go!

Bring dreams,...

Drip, Drip, Drip
Pressure is low in the water tank.
Snip, Snip, Snip
Hedges grow slow, and the ivy is rank.
Crip, Crip, Crip
Classes are dull, and students—blank.

College Pond is fine on a day to wander alone in the dream of May,
away from walls of brick and cement to consider tomorrow, and the past lament.

Slender fingers of pale yellow clay clutch at college and want to stay, to drape the open window of adults and remain forever in childish cults.

A water fall of smoke descends
into evening shadows
dissolving and uniting with the haze.
The oppressive silence of a summer's eve is broken only by twittering of restless sparrows who perch—then flit
from limb to limb,
prophesying the tumultuous storm
that lurks above the calm.
Lightning and thunder add contrast and dissonance
to the flowing melody of life, and relief is found in tears
from the sky . . .

Freedom from jobs
and freedom from life
in a block of mist away from strife—except within.

and we will go...

...to lose

Cumulous clouds will fill the eye and rain will fall

But . . .

not always.

*Days pass like years;

It's only been a day.

*A child walks with head down and pocketed thumbs.
walks across the dried mud,
and sits on a rock,
and watches a bird.*

*From his pocket he takes a pipe
and blows velvety blue bubbles, bubbles that glint and dance*

lightly

across the mud.

*He rises and runs
chasing the bubbles,*

*trying to clasp them,
knowing not,*

that if he stayed on the rock Soon enough, the bubbles would pop.

youth.

*This is Elon
in bits and scratches
abstract and serious with laughter in patches.*

*Together we are and through time will be threaded together by a sea of memories,
and yesterday. . .*

DEDICATION

LILA CLARE NEWMAN

Ph.B., Elon College; Graduate Work at Columbia University and Harvard University; Assistant Professor of Art at Elon College since 1929

Her love for the College, her friendly interest in her students and her patience in teaching have characterized her many years of service to Alma Mater. With deep gratitude and abiding affection we proudly dedicate the 1963 edition of the PHI PSI CLI to Miss Lila Newman.

PRESIDENT OF THE COLLEGE
Dr. J. Earl Danieleley

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

TO THE CLASS OF 1963:

You have completed four years of college work. I congratulate you upon this attainment. The liberal arts training which you have received here on the campus of this Christian college will help you immeasurably as you take your place as a responsible citizen in society and as a useful member of your chosen profession.

We hope that, as a result of your training here, several changes have taken place. First, we hope that you have learned to think. The world desperately needs people who can think objectively and creatively about the problems which face mankind, particularly those in the realm of human affairs. Many of you are qualified to help in meeting this need. Second, we hope that your faith in the Christian way of living has been strengthened. As you leave this campus may you be more concerned about your fellow man, your relation to each other and to God. May you leave with a spirit of dedication to the Christian way of life and with a determination to give yourself wholeheartedly in helping to bring a spirit of love, cooperation, and peace to all the world.

It is our hope that Elon College has given you adequate and thorough preparation and our prayer that God will give you guidance, wisdom, courage and strength for "the living of these days."

Sincerely yours,
J. E. Danieley
President

DEAN OF THE COLLEGE

TO THE CLASS OF 1963:

We at Elon College realize that the condition of being a truly educated man or woman is an ideal to be striven for rather than a goal ever likely to be attained. Your college experiences have been but a part of this striving. Nevertheless, we hope that they have in some measure pointed the way toward, and prepared you to seek further, that ideal condition, which can indeed make you happiest in yourselves and most serviceable to others.

C. Fletcher Moore

DEAN OF WOMEN

TO THE CLASS OF 1963:

Not so long ago you spent many happy hours playing a childhood game involving "steps." Remember? "Take two baby steps . . . take one giant step." Like many play activities of young children, this game was an imitation of adult activities.

Now, once again, you stand ready to obey the command — "Take one giant step." Those four endless years which stretched before you in September of 1959 have passed as quickly as the wink of an eye and graduation is upon you. No longer will you imitate adult activities. As you take your place in society you must assume the responsibilities and privileges of adulthood.

As you raise your foot for the next giant step, pause for a moment and reflect upon the footprints you have made at Elon. When you entered as a freshman there was no sign of your footprints on the campus or in the minds and hearts of the friends you are leaving behind. Have you left an imprint there? Does Elon know you have been on her campus? Have you given as much as you have received?

Your next step will place you in a community not unlike the one you found at Elon. A little larger, perhaps; more people; problems more complex than those which have challenged you; yet, all in all, a new untrampled plot of ground upon which you will place your foot. Will you tip-toe? Will you plow through with little regard for others? Or, will you walk firmly and gracefully through life, confident in your ability and secure in the knowledge that the ideals and objectives of Alma Mater have given your feet direction and helped to make the path ahead a smooth and rewarding one?

It is my sincere hope that your future steps will truly be "giant" ones.

Virginia A. Epperson
Dean of Women

DIRECTOR OF STUDENT PERSONNEL SERVICES

TO THE 1963 SENIORS:

It is with a great deal of pleasure that I take this opportunity to congratulate you on your accomplishment. To graduate from college is an accomplishment, and you have every right to be proud.

It was only a few short years ago that you entered Elon College as a freshman. Some of you have taken advantage of what Elon has to offer you. Others of you have done just enough to get by. Whichever the case may be, it is my hope that Elon has meant much to you. We hope that you feel you are a better person for having attended Elon College. We hope that Elon College is a better place for having you here.

Be assured that we wish for you the best of everything.

STUDENT BODY

*All the little selves. Intermingle.
Live with life not alone, but in harmony.*

The one common self—the Student Body.

Elon College is composed of many faces which express the faces of life itself. Here we travel together in a glass bubble along a winding path of words—education, culture, maturity—meanings obscure but growing as the venture progresses. A Freshman with brand-new shoes comes and plucks a leaf of ivy. A Sophomore puts the ivy in his pocket and trips over an untied shoelace. The Junior scuffs the shoes and crushes the ivy. And, then, after the four-year wandering, the Senior presses the brown, crinkled ivy leaf in a scrapbook and shines his shoes with tears. This is the never-changing path of student life, with trails of a million ivy leaves, a million shoes, intermingling. Together living with in the vibrations of a softly-spoken "Hello" is our Student Body. Here are presented these faces, the little selves.

IN MEMORIAM

HENRY EDWIN HORTON, III
 born September 1, 1941 died October 19, 1962

Henry Edwin Horton, III has paid us a rare compliment indeed. He has left a living tribute to Elon College, the administration, faculty and students. Aware that he had but a few weeks of his life-span left, Henry elected to spend them on this college campus in continuance of his pursuits as a student. For him, application to the disciplines of learning was a way of life — one worthy of the most valuable of all investments of time and energy. Providence granted to him the privilege of seeing the pursuit of truth in a much clearer perspective than most of us are ever able to see it. All too often we look upon it as merely a stepping stone to a position, success, or to some other projected value. For Henry, this pursuit was valuable in and of itself. And he has made us heirs to this insight.

Because of his sojourn among us he has left us still another bequest. We have learned that value of life is not just a matter of longevity. Socrates emphasized that the quality of life must be measured in terms of the ideals reached for, virtues exemplified, and the relationships entered into.

In still another respect we are benefactors of Henry's sojourn among us. Because of him we find it easier to believe that beyond this life there must be an opportunity to carry on and complete the unfinished business that has been undertaken. This provides a helpful standard for measuring the quality of our own lives.

This memorial gives us the opportunity to say "Thank you" for the many benefits which have accrued to us because Henry chose to live among us as student and friend.

Young man, you are pre-overdue.

You say the dorm's closed?

So Here's to Dear Old Elon . . .

Peter, Paul, . . . and WHO?

I'm getting Telstar.

O'Kelly never had it so good!

How many can we get in a T-bird?

ly one minute

The Barefoot Contessa.

Let's see . . . Six parts gin to how much vermouth?

I'm sorry, she lives in the other dormitory.

So then he says to me . . .

Honey, the photographer's here.

Ballet 33

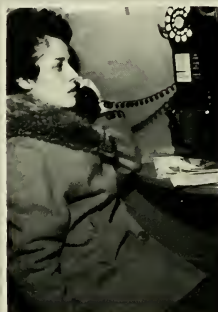

What kind of male is this?

What do you mean no boys allowed?

For proper analysis, are you sure this was all that was left from supper?

But mother, he's a senior at Carolina.

But he copied my answers.

The boys will be here in a minute.

Room check and the counselor's next door.

And then she threw me over her shoulder . . .

Chapel was never like this.

If I don't get off strict-campus soon . . . !!!

You must be kidding, Mr. Wells.

Ban takes the worry out of being close.

Quoth the raven "Nevermore."

ACTIVITIES

To learn from books is merely a part of our preparation; the fulfillment of knowledge comes with living together and working together in the sphere of campus activity.

There is a place for every student at Elon where he can develop his outside interests and broaden his scope. These student groups give all who participate a chance for personal enjoyment and an opportunity to provide the campus community with entertaining and educational activities. The art of co-operation, be it through dramatics, academic groups, religious groups or other, is a product of active interest. Here then, we present our many organizations which have helped in giving the participants the fulfillment of knowledge.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

*To seek, with ambition, a noble ideal;
To strive for, with patience, true understanding;
To search for, with open mind, knowledge of self;
To find, with reward, an honest worth;
This, through Student Government.*

The Student Government Association offers to each Elon student an open opportunity for growth. Through working in SGA, one can learn both principles of organization and a way of understanding which active participation offers. SGA stands for the students, and it is through this organization that student affairs and events are co-ordinated by means of the legislative, judicial, and executive sections, and a wide field of committee activity. SGA also handles communications between students and administration. The center of all student activity and the core of leadership, SGA serves and offers with a truly honest worth for those who seek, strive, and search; for they shall find.

Honor Council

An honest character and a clear conscience are close companions.

Life at Elon is based on the Honor Code and the Campus Code which give to students pledges of high standards and good conduct. For those who err, we must have a system to provide regulation and to uphold justice. The Honor Council performs the duty for us of dealing with violation of our codes. Only with control can our campus maintain order and standards which provide a healthy college atmosphere and encourage personal responsibility. To provide the fairest and most efficient operation, we have been constantly striving to improve the methods of the council and to establish organization which will promote the Honor System and show each student the worth of knowing the companionship of honesty and a clear conscience.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT COMMITTEES

Liberal Arts Forum

The Liberal Arts. The knowledge of the world about brought to us.

Board of Elections

The democratic vote, the free choice. For those who uphold this with hours of long work, we mark "well-done" on the ballot for the Board of Election.

Development Committee

Environment influences life. The development of our sources in creativity for pleasure, for comfort, by them.

Honor System Revision Committee

Only through constant revision, the prize of true and good judicial organization. To improve, to progress, and to know what change can bring.

Chapel Committee

We come together for service and learning and the song of those in prayer is mighty and yet solemn. Chapel meets as a weekly inspiration.

Food Committee

One leftover committee.

Handbook Revision Committee

Our companion guide to the four years — our handbook. This group follows the changing world of campus life with revision.

Parking Committee

This is the "finest" work on campus — the Parking Committee.

Community Relations Committee

To share with mutual benefit; to know the world beyond the ivy brick wall; to let them know us. This is Community-Relations.

Student Affairs Committee

We work in harmony for the goal of understanding. The core of representation, the students and administration aiming as a unit for betterment — the Student Affairs Committee.

Publicity Committee

Posters just to let you know, CAMPUS CRIER tells you so. This committee, sharp as a tack, Publicity-wise, they don't lack.

Codification Committee

The order of the Senate Bill.

First row: B. Tillman, P. Cole, R. Crooks, D. A. Morris, B. Strader, C. Jackson; Second row: J. Rice, A. Tyndall, D. Parker, L. Sellars, R. Clapp, B. Rix. Chairman: Allen Tyndall.

HOMECOMING COMMITTEE

The alumni return and find Elon still so, with warm-hearted welcome.

We saw the "Fall of the Indians" this year personified by the dazzle of floats, displays, sponsors and a game of victory. Responsibility for the biggest week-end of the year is the Homecoming Committee, which plans the annual Burlington parade, half-time activities, the placing of displays on campus, and the presentation of the queen. All the time and effort of an efficient committee are spent to give past students a warm welcome and to all, an exciting week-end.

ORIENTATION COMMITTEE

They are here to let Frosh know

What to do and where to go.

Parties, meetings, sights to see.

"Mingle", "Mingle", that's the key.

Places, faces, all so new,

To Dear Old Elon, "We welcome you."

A good beginning can determine an attitude which lasts. It is the duty of the Orientation Committee to greet and meet new students and to give them a program including the selling of beanies, the enforcement of Frosh rules, testing, meetings, discussions, speeches, a talent show, and social events, that will guide them in their awareness of the campus life — a new environment. These committee members become experts at answering questions, mingling, and tired feet. All this to acquaint the new with the old, the old with the new through orientation.

First row: R. Turner; Second row: B. Simonds, M. Herbert, W. Sawyer, S. Rudd, J. Jones, S. Ferguson, P. Fisk; Third row: C. Jackson, J. Hudson, B. J. Morgan, S. Fosskett, J. Poole. Chairman: Wally Sawyer.

DANCE COMMITTEE

*Week-end dance is in full swing,
All will swirl and whirl and sing;
Behind the work to make it so.
Committee members on the go.*

The stage is set for a success when active and creative students spend many hours with paper and paint to produce a decorative atmosphere which, when set to music, becomes an unforgettable dance. This year, the Dance Committee presented to us a Japanese spectacular at Homecoming and at Christmas the holiday treat of a band with the beat. This appointed committee has the responsibility of planning our semi-formal dances. To transform the gym into a paradise for a night is their objective and one well-reached as the flowing formals swish across the floor in a chiffon, "Thank you, I'd love to dance."

ENTERTAINMENT COMMITTEE

C. Ward, J. Hudson, B. Milligan, K. Broda, Chairman: Ken Broda.

We love the social life, so shall we?

To keep a student body entertained takes the effort of a strong committee. The SCA Entertainment Committee has provided several week-end dances, juke-box hops, and the Sunday night movies. They highlighted the year with the Letterman at May Day. Those who take advantage of that planned find enjoyment in appreciation.

First row: D. Terrell, R. Phipps; Second row: L. Sinclair, N. Clark, J. Hollandsworth, J. Jones, J. Antony, S. Rudd, K. Sandefur, M. Leopoldt, P. Fisk; Third row: P. Huey, F. Stephenson, H. Pittard, D. Andes, J. Lankford, G. Hettel. Chairman: Russ Phipps.

"A concrete picture, a tangible memo of Elon in Abstract."

This year, the Phi Psi Cli staff brings you a true life story of campus life through pictures and words. Staff members, following the keywords "diligence" and "originality", made lay-outs, wrote copy, took pictures and solicited ads, until at last the finished product is yours. Co-operative effort spiced with imagination has made the technical task enjoyable and has brought satisfying rewards to those who have worked to present "Elon in Abstract" for your keeping.

Stanley, I'll bet this won't fit in the closet.

WOMEN'S INTERDORMITORY COUNCIL

These are the girls with the so-called "thankless" job, but it is through their efforts that the women students gain a system of organization which provides a smooth-running dorm life. Call-downs are earned, not given; and more important than the regulatory duty of the council, this is the student group which speaks for the girls, gains for them privileges, and provides services bringing mutual enjoyment to women students in living and sharing as a community. Members include Ann Jennings, Joan Eleanor Smith, Jo Dowell, Linda Cheyney, and Kitty Goode, seated; and Pat Pierce, Jackie Davis, Brenda York, Brenda Woodward (Vice-President), Nancy Clark (President), Barbara Jennings, Martha Barnes, and Doris Morris, standing.

Those who serve to maintain order are the symbols of respect.

The organization to provide men students with a counseling and disciplinary system has been well-organized and strengthened this year. The elected officers have worked in co-operation with the administration to provide a centralized dormitory government with supervision of conduct. Members include Gary Taylor, Tommy Russ (President), Rodney Barfield, Cameron Little, Thomas Farrell, Luke O'Hara, Sheldon Clayton, Joe Dawson, Ronnie Bell, Reid Hughes.

ELON COLLEGE CHOIR

The music of voices in harmony is more beautiful than a thousand golden violins.

The Elon Choir, under the direction of Professor Charles Lynam, presents each year both chapel and special programs of music for our pleasure. The "Messiah" and the Easter program are two annual events offered by those students who find companionship through song. First Row: Alma Blackwelder, Linda Keck, Diana Weid, Linda Paschal, Laura Rice, Shirley Foskett, Susan Hardy, Gail Tarleton, Donna Sedwick, Sarah Petty, Jo Dowell. Second Row: Suzy Jones, Paulette Laufer, Pam Hitchings, Brenda Williams, Daphne Council, Margaret Weatherly, Nancy Clark, Harriett Noble, Mary Morris, Jane Farmer, Glenda White. Third Row: John Flemming, Jane Pointer, Marie de Jong, Judy Hillers, Jewelle Bass, Eleanor Smith, Peggy Monday, Helen Claxton, Dianne Burrage, Sally McDuffie, Alice Mitchell, Jeanne Lankford, Mary Benson, Ann Gordon, Karen Brown. Fourth Row: Jack Lambeth, Robert Pease, David Andes, Wayne Kanoy, Oscar Fowler, Tom Brady, Thelbert Fincher, Hinson Mikell, Buddy Williams, Aubrey MacDonald, Kenneth Smith, Thomas Harrell, Howard Blanchard, Fred Stephenson, Charles Darden.

ELON COLLEGE BAND

*High notes, low notes,
 Fast notes, slow notes,
 Swing notes, sing notes,
 Rock notes, ring notes.
 Who notes? We note.*

Through much hard practice and interest, our band has grown into a pride-of-the-campus group. Superlatives in surplus are credited to the band, this year under the direction of Professor Jack White. From gala half-time presentations, with tricky maneuvers, to public concerts, this music-minded group has provided us with pep in harmony. "WE thank you." First Row: Paulette Laufer, Linda Johnson, Mike Bryant, Gwen Hancock, Jewelle Bass, Hannah Hobbs. Second Row: Harry Holway, Billie Jo Harvey, Gail Tarleton, David Hosmer, Don Padgett, Michael Griffin (captain), Nancy Daniel, Evelyn Kent, Mary Coolidge, Joe Cote, Prof. Jack White. Third Row: Katherine Barker, Bob Simonds, Thomas McLean, Ronald Kidd, Dave Dean, John Autry, Bert Morrison, Jack Lambeth, Graeme Shull, Anna Gates, Mike Klesmer, Eddie Barnes. Fourth Row: Oscar Fowler, Turley Higgins, Bill McClellan, Len Springle, Garth Hutson, Bill Whittenton, Roni George, Laura Barnes, Wayne Bean, Bill Ruth, John Fisher.

An insatiable curiosity, a nose for news, and a talented pen are the requirements for those who serve to inform the campus through the MAROON AND GOLD. Under the direction of Professor Luther Byrd, the newspaper is printed every two weeks on the press in South Hall. This four-page publication contains informative and entertaining articles and is highlighted by the special student columns on the subjects of campus affairs, Student Government, and sports.

HONOR SOCIETIES

ORDER OF THE OAK

Outstanding scholarship is the foundation for the future.

This year a new honor society, The Order of the Oak, has been formed at Elon College. The purpose of the organization is to "recognize superior scholarship, to encourage intellectual achievement, and to foster the liberal and critical mind." To be eligible a student must have at least junior standing with a cumulative grade point average of 3.30 and must be of good character. Election

PI GAMMA MU

Pi Gamma Mu is a national society designed to improve scholarship in the social studies, to inspire social service to humanity by intelligent approach to the social problems, and to engender sympathy toward others with different opinions and institutions by a better mutual understanding. Membership is accorded to those who have distinguished themselves by extensive and outstanding scholarship in the field of social science. Members include Bob Saunders (President), Dr. H. H. Cunningham, Robert Willis, Professor Gilbert Latham, Dr. Konstantinas Avizonis, Kenneth Lumpkin, Robert Baxter, and John Reed.

ALPHA PSI OMEGA

A true actor has a soul glazed with imagination. To him, the stage is a little world.

The recognition of hard work, interest, and talent is the purpose of the Alpha Psi Omega dramatic society. Members are those who have been active in the student drama and have earned the point requirements for acceptance in the honor fraternity. Members include Larry Biddle, President; Linda Lester; Carol Trageser, Secretary-Treasurer; Don Terrell; and Grayson Mattingly, Vice-President.

ELON PLAYERS

*Try-outs. Faint—I got the part.
Hectic day, rehearsals start.
Lines to learn, can I do it?
Practice, work, there's so much to it.*

*Upstage, downstage, roundabout.
"Watch your back!" directors shout.
Props and lighting, what a mix-up.
Goosey paint, a face to fix up.*

*Then all at once, opening night.
Ready to go, OH, stage fright.
The show is over, job well-done,
One conclusion—acting's fun!*

When actors get together with a director and stage men, it is time to do a play. This year, under the direction of Professor E. Ray Day, students produced The Imaginary Invalid, an in-the-round production, and The Bad Seed. This group offers entertainment for the public and is a learning ground for those students who find inspiration in things dramatic. For efforts of excellence, "epie" awards are given each spring. Members include Al Baer, Carol Trageser, Secretary-Treasurer; Tyrone Rowell, Marie de Jong, John Autry, President; Sally Gershengoren, and Peggy Dodson. Not pictured is Linda Lester, Vice-President.

BETA CHI EPSILON

The musical notes of a typewriter compose the song for the business world.

Beta Chi Epsilon and the Business Club are composed of those students enrolled in the business courses who enjoy mixing business with pleasure. Those who plan careers in the field join for the benefit of extra preparation and social life tuned to the keyboard of letters. Officers of Beta Chi Epsilon are Vickie Swift, President, and Sandra Hensley, Vice-President. Sam Johnson is President of the Business Club.

BUSINESS CLUB

MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION

A pure Christian heart invites and unites. This, for those who seek to advance the spirit and to enlighten the soul with fellowship and strength of purpose.

Members of the Ministerial Association are Oscar Fowler, Doris Morris, Jerry Cameron, David Lent, Bob Saunders (President), Jane Pointer, Sally Maurer, Carol Lougee, Jewelle Bass, Carolyn and Rosalyn Tillotson, Allen Tyn-dall, Leanna Sellers, and Ray Hall.

N.E.A.

The National Education Association is composed of students who plan to become teachers. Jerry Drake is President of the organization.

W.A.A. OFFICERS

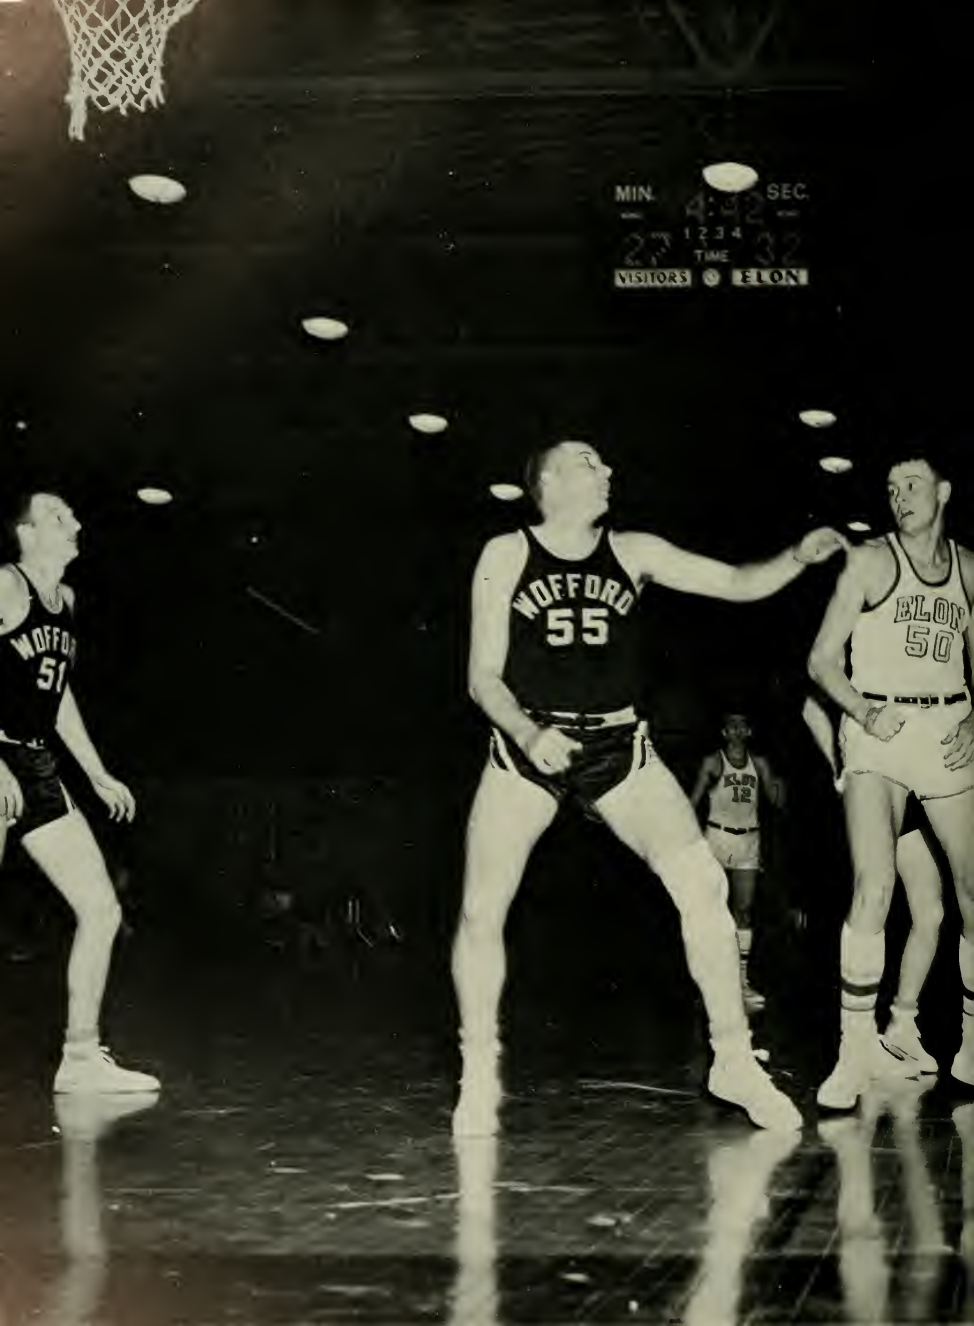

Judy Maness, President; Mrs. Griffin, Adviser; Kay Jeffreys, Secretary; Nancy Butler, Treasurer; Sally McDuffie, Reporter.

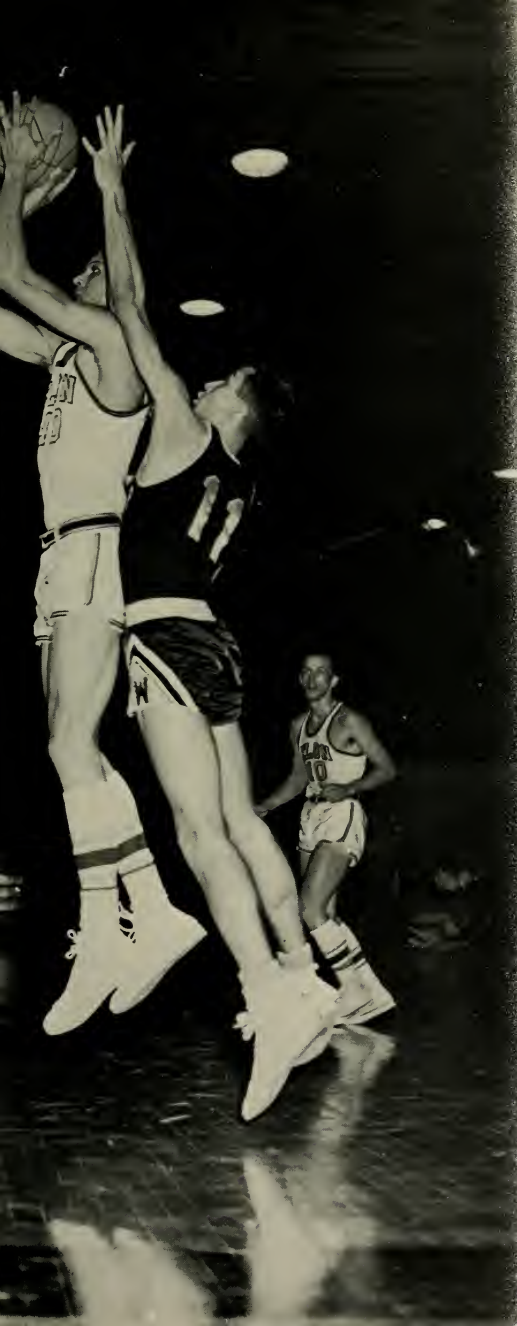

WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The smile of an athletic girl says, "Come, join in fellowship."

The W. A. A. is an organization open to all women students who wish to participate in intramurals and social get-togethers. The annual ice-cream and Christmas parties are two examples of the ways that the W. A. A. promotes recreation and calls to all girls to find the fun in participation.

*The spirit of an athlete engraved with Sportsmanship.
A field, a team, a crowd.
The thrill of victory, the tears of loss. The surge of the muscle and the heart bound together in the drama of the sport.*

Our program of athletics includes varsity teams in football, basketball, baseball, golf and track. The intramural program is wide. Through participation, students maintain the proverb calling for a sound body and a sound mind. Those who watch enjoy with anticipation and pride. These sport events give impetus to school spirit and offer the spectacle of game for all. Long and strenuous practice bring rewards of an exciting and fulfilling athletic program. Here, we present to you our teams in action.

FOOTBALL

Coach George Tucker's Elon College football team of 1962 finally brought back the football machine which in the past enjoyed some impressive seasons in the Carolinas Conference. The "Fighting Christians", with 21 lettermen back from last year's team, found themselves with 7-3 record. The 7 wins was the largest number that an Elon football team has encountered since the 1950 season. It has been five full years, too, since we have seen the Christian footballers in the upper ranks in championship; and it's good to note our Maroon and Gold gridders finished in the runner-up spot this year.

The Christians opened up their campaign with the prospects of having a better season, with a fine performance against Apprentice, winning by a 20-0 score. Other wins were against Guilford, East Carolina, Catawba, West Carolina, Newberry, and Frederick. Their 3 defeats came at the hands of Appalachian, Carson-Newman, and Lenoir Rhyne—the team they had hoped to beat in order to finish in at least a tie for the conference crown. Lenoir-Rhyne won to finish on top in the conference with Elon tapping off 2nd spot.

Seniors Burl Clements, fullback; and George Wooten, quarterback; and Cameron Little, junior guard; joined the list on the All-Conference team. Each boy also placed on the NAIA's All-District team this season.

and Randy Warren. Back Row—Joe Bell, Jim Moore, Dan Kelley, Rex Harrison, Charlie Strigo, Don Amos, Dean Yates, Howard Arner, Tommy Mitchell, Gerald Burton, Russell Stutz, and John Gozjack, Alex Burnett, Ronnie Bell, and Tim Kempson.

CAGE ACTION

Andrew shoots again!

Guard, Morningstar, uses his arms.

He's quite a way from the floor.

"Little brother" Andrew puts in 2 against Lenoir Rhyne.

What do I do now coach?"

Mouths hang open on this beauty by Andrew!

For my next trick . . .

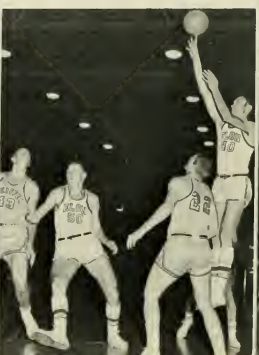

Morningstar fights for the rebound.

Roland Miller seems to be happy about Andrew's shooting.

"Watch out for my leg, Bill!"

Andrew gets held up as Branson fires for points.

Looks like Dewey's guard is doing his daily exercise.

Dewey Andrew lays one in.

Basketball of 1962-63 Season

The "Fighting Christians" of 1962-63 finished an impressive season with a 17-8 record and wound up in the top half of the Carolinas Conference.

This year the Christians were led by 6'6" Dewey Andrew, the only senior on the team. Andrew placed on the All-Conference list for his second year; and in his last two seasons of playing, he has averaged about twenty points per game. As the big pivot man, Dewey pours them in with his beautiful turn, jump shots and hook shots. Andrew received valuable assists from guards Roland Miller, Bill Morningstar, and Dave Winfrey. Up front were big Jesse Branson, Sonny Smith, and Howard Andrew. Branson received Honorable Mention on the All-Conference squad this season and was outstanding in his jumping, shooting, and rebounding. Sonny Smith is another forward with a fine push shot, and Howard Andrew seems to be developing into as skilled a ballplayer as his big brother. These boys, along with the reserves, provided basketball fans with an exciting season including many thrill-packed moments.

Fancy footwork displayed by Morningstar.

Jesse and his "hopscotch" game.

E. C. C. seems to be a little amazed at Morningstar's many abilities.

Looks like an East Berlin episode.

Come on up and get the ball!

Long arms are helpful in this game.

Sonny Smith jumps.

You don't have to be tall, but it helps.

The Elon College baseball squad of 1962, which played in tough luck much of the year, flashed brilliance at times to gain some highly pleasing victories. The squad members, shown left to right are as follows: Front Row: Jimmie Holmes, Tom Piccininni, Roy Erlandsen, Jerry Pike, Danny Hall, and Wayne Allen. Second Row: Ken Cook,

BASEBALL

The Fighting Christian baseball team had a fairly good year on the diamond although they did not win the Conference Championship.

The team provided the fans with many thrills as they journeyed to the top and finishing the season with 18 wins and 15 losses.

Plenty of action was furnished by individuals as All-Conference and All-State catcher, Mike Little, and the fire-baller himself, Jerry Tillman, pitcher.

No one can forget the thrill of seeing a white sphere sail over the fence for a home run. Outfielder Danny Hall furnished the fans with many of these. There was also the thrill of double-plays in which the whiz, Eddie Clark, helped set up, and then there were the calls everyone said the umpire did not see.

These were thrills provided by the 1962 Fighting Christian Diamond Squad as they again filled our record books with a fine season.

Coach John D. Sanford

TRACK

Track once again seemed to be on the making at Elon as the 1962 team proved to be more successful this year than in the past few years. Below is just a sample of the vast thrills furnished as Roland Miller, sophomore distance ace, raced to a brilliant time in becoming the first two-miler in the history of the Carolinas Conference to break the "Magic Ten" on the two-mile event.

CHEERLEADERS

Dian Clary (Head Cheerleader), Eleanor Smith, Carol Trageser, Bonnie McEvoy, Gail Smith, Jane Loy, Nancy

Clark, Denyse Theodore and Barbara Tillman are also regular cheerleaders.

A thousand voices sing to the whirl of a maroon skirt, and the team performs to the chants of a spirited hand-clap.

The cheerleaders are those who lead the crowd in supporting our teams on to the aim of victory. These ten girls attend games at home and away to lend their loyalty. Their enthusiasm to raise spirit is demonstrated as they plan and lead pep-rallies, decorate the goal-posts, and publicize games. This year the group sold flowers as a Homecoming attraction. An excited, smiling voice in a letter-sweater shouting, "Give me an E!" — this is an Elon cheerleader.

MAJORETTES

High-stepping boots and flashing batons give interpretations to music.

The new attraction this year was the majorettes, Barbara Tillman and Barbara Rix, who led the band in half-time activities. These two girls practiced many hours to produce routines which added a spice of graceful entertainment to our football games.

GREEKS

And so we proudly wear the cloak of binding friendship, woven with the threads of the fraternal spirit on the loom of brotherhood.

When the frat paddles and sorority colors appear on the campus, the fraternal groups welcome new members into the growing circles of brotherhood. With this joining, new members discover the fun, the fellowship, and the worth to be found in belonging. Throughout the year, the social groups play a spirited part in campus activity. A cigarette-pack contest, a brother-sister party, intramural competition, a chariot race — these are a few of the events which provide the proof for each new member that a loyal purpose shall make him forever an old member. Here then, are our fraternities and sororities.

PAN-HELLENIC COUNCIL

The more we get together, the stronger the unity toward mutual purpose, the greater the dividend of benefit.

The Pan-Hellenic Council is the common meeting ground for the social fraternal groups on campus. The main project for the organization this year has been the revision of the constitution which will place authority in the hands of this group to control infractions of the general rules concerning individual fraternities and sororities. The new constitution will make the council a stronger centralized organization of supervision and co-operation. Each year, the Pan-Hellenic Council, composed of one representative from each group, plans and executes a Christmas party for the Children's Home and sets the time and regulations for Rush. Greek nights are also held. Through this council, each fraternity and sorority can realize mutual understanding and can work toward friendly fellowship. Representatives as they are seated around the table include Eleanor Smith, Secretary-Treasurer, Tau Zeta Phi; Bob Saunders, Alpha Pi Delta; Arlene Kolber, Beta Omicron Beta; Tom Brady, Kappa Psi Nu; Jane Harper, Vice-President, Delta Upsilon Kappa; and Demus Thompson, President, Sigma Phi Beta. Herb Siner, Iota Tau Kappa, is not pictured.

MAY DAY

Queen and King of the May reign in the mist of dancing spring shadows.

On the throne of the May Court this year is our own PHI PSI CLI editor, Miss Eleanor Smith, from Winston-Salem, North Carolina. Eleanor, a campus leader in service, academics, and beauty, held her reign as the climax of a full and rewarding college career.

Jerry Drake is the elected May King. This active senior is from Greensboro, North Carolina. In his four college years, Jerry has offered his abilities and talents along with a friendly smile and undying patience in giving to Elon College.

As the Maid-of-Honor is lovely Miss Barbara Burnett, another favorite campus beauty. Barbara is a senior from Danville, Virginia and is known for her courteous disposition and the warmth of a friendly heart. She also has contributed through effort in various campus activities.

The escort for the Maid-of-Honor is Dewey Andrew from Snow Camp, North Carolina. The spark of a grin and the friend of all is Dewey. This senior has made an outstanding record on the basketball court as well as on the May Court.

Dewey Andrew, escort for Maid-of-Honor; Jerry Drake, May King.

MAY COURT

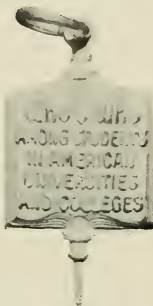

Larry Schucker and Lynn Ryals, Junior escorts; Ronald Robertson, Freshman escort; Howie Andrew, Sophomore escort; John Gozjack and Demus Thompson, Senior escorts; Judson Bryant, Sophomore escort.

Tom Brady, a history and philosophy major, represented Kappa Psi Nu fraternity on the Pan-Hellenic Council. He was president of the Junior Class and an outstanding and mature leader in student government. In addition to his contributions to student life, Tom is married and the father of a darling daughter. A Dean's List student, one of Tom's most outstanding accomplishments came during his Junior years when he was awarded the Haskin Award as the outstanding Biblical Student.

James Buie, a history major has made his claim to fame as the President of the Student Body. Jim has proved himself as a fine leader of his fellow students and has won their friendship and respect through his general concern for their welfare. In addition to his interest in student activities, Jim won his monogram in varsity football.

Nancy Clark, an elementary education major, and President of Tau Zeta Phi has shown her ability as a leader on the girls' side of campus as President of Women's Interterritory Council. Nancy has fought many a time for "the equality of women" and has won the respect of the college community. She has been a member of the cheering squad and was an honorary commencement marshal. A personable individual, Nancy has freely given of her time and talent.

Jerry Drake, a health and physical education major, was president of Sigma Mu Sigma. In addition to being a good student, Jerry lettered in baseball and was instrumental in organizing the Physical Education Majors' Club. Jerry has been active in student government and was honored as a commencement marshal. Well liked by all those in his association, his well-sounded abilities and interests instigated many contributions to student life.

Paul Hyde, a pre-med student, has spent many dedicated hours at his laboratory work and as Chairman of the Honor Council. Paul is a member of Sigma Mu Sigma, and his academic ability has placed him among the charter members of the Order of the Oak. One of the most popular students on the men's side of the campus, Paul has always been on call to give a helping hand.

IN AMERICAN UNIVERSITIES AND COLLEGES

Amy Litten, a biology major, is an officer in Tau Zeta Phi sorority. She was named to the Order of the Oak for her outstanding academic achievement. In addition to being an interested student government participant, she maintained a quality leadership in her church. Amy, a very charming and friendly student, has been consistently popular with her classmates.

Judy Maness, an elementary education major, is a member of Tau Zeta Phi sorority and an active participant in the student government association and in the Women's Interdormitory Council. Judy is one of those girls you rarely observe working with flamboyancy, but the results of her activity is always a welcome contribution.

Bob Saunders, a history and philosophy major, is one of the most active people around our campus. Acting as President of Pi Gamma Mu, Bob is also busy with various phases of student government most notably as the head of the Board of Elections. A member of Alpha Pi Delta Fraternity, Bob has been a representative on the Pan-Hellenic Council.

Eleanor Smith, a mathematics and music major, is an active member of Tau Zeta Phi sorority. She was named to the Order of the Oak for high academic attainment. In addition to scholarship, she was secretary-treasurer of student government for 2 years, a cheerleader, and editor of the Phi Psi Clio. On three occasions, she was honored as a commencement marshal. One of the college's most popular and best-loved students, she was selected by her classmates as Homecoming Queen and May Queen. This lovely lady has been a most valuable asset to her alma mater.

Carol Trageser, an English and Spanish major, is a member of Tau Zeta Phi sorority and one of Elon's most active student leaders. A consistent dean's list student, she is a member of the Order of the Oak and Alpha Psi Omega honorary societies. Her many talents carried her to lead roles in five major Elon Player performances and two awards for her stage prowess. Always willing to give a helping hand, her cheery smile and friendly manner are real contributions to our school. Her most recent brainchild, "The Campus Crier", has earned a stable and popular position with the students of Elon.

They serve who lead.
Excellence is reward for what has been nobly given.*

In recognition for work well done and in encouragement for the future, these students were chosen to represent Elon in Who's Who. Selections are made by a student-faculty committee and are based on the student's scholarship, his participation and leadership in academic and extra curricular activities, his citizenship and service to the school, and his promise of future success.

A patron is vital to the success of a yearbook. We as students support the cost, but we cannot do it alone. We need the support of the surrounding communities and their business establishments in order to produce the best. On the following pages, we give our advertisements with an appreciative "Thank you."

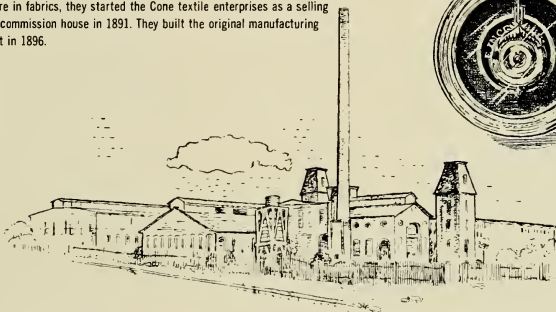

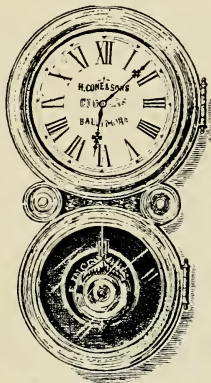

Burlington, largest and most diversified manufacturer of quality fabrics, hosiery, carpets and other textile products, offers career opportunities to qualified graduates in one of America's most essential industries. Visit the Burlington plant in your area, or write to BURLINGTON INDUSTRIES, Personnel Department, Greensboro, North Carolina.

Burlington INDUSTRIES, INC.
"Woven into the Life of America"

First the clock . . . then the plant —

When a customer bought 100 cigars from the wholesale grocery firm of H. Cone & Sons in 1870, he received a handsome clock. Some of these clocks are still ticking away. In addition to selling cigars and groceries for their father, Moses and Caesar Cone sold cotton plaids. Seeing a great future in fabrics, they started the Cone textile enterprises as a selling and commission house in 1891. They built the original manufacturing plant in 1896.

What of Cone Mills Today?

From these small beginnings has come one of the world's largest and most progressive textile firms. With 18 plants employing almost 13,000 men and women, Cone Mills today is the world's largest producer of corduroys, denims and flannels. Its modern printing and finishing operations are turning out a host of other fashion-right fabrics. Cone through its research and development activities is constantly seeking better ways to make better materials.

Examples of Cone firsts in this country are the new, popular stretch denims and corduroys.

To maintain its high standards, our company needs young people with initiative and intelligence. Cone Mills offers opportunities in four areas . . . production, administration, sales and research. Would you be interested in joining such a progressive organization? Write Industrial Relations Department, Cone Mills Corporation, Greensboro, N. C.
